WELCOME

*CALL TO WORSHIP

The Gospel is the story of the Word made Flesh.

In this story, God joined creation in a body,
the body of Jesus,
who lived and died as humans do.

The Gospel is the story of a God who gets us. In becoming human, God experienced all that is part of this world.

The hunger and the fullness,
the heartache and the joy,
the spirit and the flesh.

The Gospel is the story that transforms us,
where we are changed from glory into glory
and renewed in the image of God.

Hallelujah! Praise the Lord!

Let's tell this story again & again!

*PASSING OF THE PEACE

The peace of Christ be with you.
And also with you.

*HYMN OF PRAISE 522

I Love to Tell the Story

HANKEY

*COLLECT IN ESPAÑOL

Dios misericordioso, que nos llamas a amar a nuestro prójimo como a nosotros mismos, nos has bendecido con muchas lenguas para alabar tu santo nombre. Oramos por la unidad de la Iglesia, por todos los que celebran su culto en inglés o en español, y por los inmigrantes que viven de la fe en un país desconocido. Por Cristo Jesús, que hace un hogar para todos tus hijos. Amén.

Merciful God, who calls us to love our neighbor as ourselves, you have blessed us with many tongues to praise your holy name. We pray for the unity of the church, for all who worship in English or Spanish, and for immigrants who live by faith in an unfamiliar country. Through Christ Jesus, who makes a home for all your children. Amen.

Matthew 17:1-9

adapted from the NRSVue

Six days later, Jesus took with him Peter and James and his brother John and led them up a high mountain, by themselves.
and he was transfigured before them,
and his face shone like the sun,
and his clothes became bright as light.
Suddenly there appeared to them Moses and Elijah talking with him.
Then Peter said to Jesus,
“Lord, it is good for us to be here. If you wish, I will set up three tents here:
one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah.”
While he was still speaking, suddenly a bright cloud overshadowed them,
and a voice from the cloud said,
“This is my Son, the Beloved; with him I am well pleased; listen to him!”
When the disciples heard this, they fell to the ground and were overcome by fear.
But Jesus came and touched them, saying,
“Get up and do not be afraid.”
And when they raised their eyes, they saw no one except Jesus himself, alone.
As they were coming down the mountain, Jesus ordered them,
“Tell no one about the vision until after the Son of Man has been raised from the dead.”

RITCHIE

The image shows two staves of musical notation in G major, 6/8 time. The first staff contains the melody for the first line of the response, and the second staff contains the melody for the second line. The lyrics are written below the notes.

This, this is where chil-dren be-long, wel-come as part of the wor-ship-ing throng.

Wa-ter, God's Word, bread and cup, prayer, and song: This is where chil-dren be-long.

AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

What is the Gospel?

The Gospel is the story of Jesus Christ, the love of God made flesh and bone.

In this story, God's love defeats all tools of death and despair.

How does God's love shape our story?

God's love writes us a new story,

where we can find belovedness in every nook and cranny of creation

This new story transfigures and transforms us.

That's what Love does. It changes us. How does Love remake our story?

Love pulls us away from the seduction of despair

by directing our lives to the work of healing.

God's love wipes every tear from our eyes

and makes our broken hearts whole.

God's love saves us from all that drains life.

That's what God does. That's what God has always done.

God still speaks to us with the same love that greeted prophets and apostles, sinners and saints.

God enters our story with the same love that raised Christ from the grave, proving once and for all that nothing the Empire does can separate us from the Love of God in Christ Jesus.

Where is God's love speaking in our story? What could God be saying to us here and now?

Blessed are you who still sing Love's song in the sea of racism, sexism, classism, and ableism.

Blessed are you who proclaim Love must win in the midst of ageism, xenophobia, queerphobia, and transphobia.

Blessed are you like Peter, James, and John – feeling terrified by Christ's story.

Blessed are you who gently say, "Get up. Do not be afraid."

Blessed are you seeking refuge on the mountaintop.

Blessed are you who labor in the streets.

Blessed are you who put your body on the line for Love.

Blessed are you writing the stories of resistance.

Blessed are you who are new to such stories,

and blessed are you who let Love reauthor your story.

In the name of Jesus Christ, the greatest Storyteller, we say all this.

Amen.

MUSIC FOR REFLECTION

CALL TO SHARING

ANTHEM

Let All the World in Every Corner Sing

C.S. Lang

Antiphon: Let all the world in every corner sing, my God and King!

Verse 1: The heavens are not too high, God's praise may thither fly; the earth is not too low, God's praises there may go.

Verse 2: The church with psalms must shout, no door can keep them out; but above all the heart must bear the longest part.

Program note: Musical settings of the poem by 16th century English poet George Herbert are numerous, and include several hymn settings. The poet emphasizes the universal scope of praise, extending to heaven and earth in the first verse, and to the whole church and the individual heart in the second, suggesting worship is at once cosmic and deeply personal. C.S. Lang's setting, in 2-part canon, repeats the short antiphon before and after each verse. Lang employs word-painting to express the poetic contrasts: the higher-pitched, expansive setting of the first phrases of each verse ("heaven" and "church," respectively) contrasting the quiet, intimate setting of the 2nd phrases ("earth" and "heart").

GRATITUDE CORNER

I am thankful for all of the many people who work in quiet ways, behind the scenes, to make UCCH such a special place. There are people who cut the communion bread and prepare communion, people who move chairs and tables in the Fellowship Hall, people who take minutes at meetings and people who place those minutes in the archives, people who insure that we have a working projector and sound system in the Fellowship Hall, people who volunteer in the library, etc. This list is so much longer than space allows. Thank you to every single person who helps make this a better place by the quiet things you do that most of us never see. —Jan Thornton-Irvine
